RAJASTHAN INSTITUTE OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY CHITTORGARH

AGREEMENT FOR STUDENT EXCHANGE BETWEEN

Rajasthan College of Engineering for Women, Jaipur

AND

Rajasthan Institute of Engineering & Technology, Chittorgarh

Rajasthan college of Engineering for Women, Jaipur, and Rajasthan Institute of Engineering & Technology Chittorgarh, agrees to implement a Student Exchange Agreement in accordance with the principles and guidelines set forth below. The purpose of this agreement is to enhance the educational experiences and the cultural understanding of students from both institutions.

Student Exchange Criteria

It is agreed that:

1. The purpose of each student exchange is to enable students to take classes but not to study for a degree at the host institution. Courses passed at the host institution will normally be accepted for credit towards the degree at the candidate's home institution in which s/he is enrolled. It will be the responsibility of each participant in the student exchange program to obtain official approval from his/her own institution for courses taken at the host institution.
2. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and all prior discussions, agreements, and understandings, whether verbal or in writing, is merged in this agreement.
3. By addendum and with the written approval between both the institutes, the exchange can be extended to include other colleges and departments, as long as the principle of a balanced exchange is maintained.
4. Participants will be subject to the standard rules, regulations, and enrollment constraints of the institutes in the selection of courses.
5. The departments/divisions involved in the exchange at the home university will provide academic counseling to ensure that the academic courses taken at the host institution are acceptable to the home institution. The host institution will provide course descriptions and syllabi to aid in course equivalency evaluation.

Policies Agreed by both Institutes:-

1. No monetary consideration will be exchanged between the two institutions, nor there any indemnities, reimbursements for expenses, or sharing of fees or profits arising from the exchange.
2. The parties agreed to do not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, height, marital status, political persuasion, race, religion, sexual orientation, veteran status, or weight.
3. Both institutions, faculty, and students participating in the Program will comply with Applicable rules and regulations of both the institutes as prescribed.

Review, Contacts, Signatories

This Agreement is subject to review at the end of the first year and shall be effective for five years from the date of final signature. It shall be subject to revision, modification or renewal by amutual written agreement. Either party may terminate the Agreement by written notice submitted at least 30 days in advance of the next academic semester. Termination would not affect students already engaged in the Agreement. If the Agreement is not renewed by mutual consent, the Agreement will conclude at the end of the specified time period, or after activities in progress have concluded.

IV. EXCHANGE OF FACULTY & STAFF

- A. Both institutions agree to encourage faculty and staff participation in exchange program activities.
- B. The period of exchange will be determined by the purpose of the exchange. The duration of the faculty and staff exchanges shall be arranged as appropriate and in accordance with the established rules and practices of the institute's management.
- C. Both the institutes are agreeing to supply office space, library privileges, technology linkage, and other facilities appropriate to the position.
- D. This agreement pertains to exchange participants only, and does not include spouses or dependents.

V. OTHER ACTIVITIES

Both institutions agree to develop initiatives that are of mutual benefit to Faculty, academic, and non-academic staff. These initiatives will be developed collaboratively and will be authorized by the appropriate administrators on each campus. Details of new initiatives will be negotiated by both parties, as the need arises.

VI. DURATION, CONDITIONS AND MODIFICATIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT

- A. This agreement is effective upon the signature of the designated officials of each institution.
- B. This agreement will be valid for five years from the date of signature.
- C. It is intended that exchanges be reciprocal, within a three-year period. Every effort will be made to maintain an exchange balance within a calendar year. Reciprocity shall be subject to periodic review by both universities. The absence of exchanges during any one calendar year is possible and does not nullify this agreement.
- D. Modifications may be made to the agreement, upon written acceptance by both institutions.
- E. Either institution may terminate this agreement with six months' written notice. Exchanges planned or in progress when termination is instituted will be satisfactorily completed.
- F. The agreement may be renewed by mutual consent of both parties, following an evaluation of all components of the program.
